SANA-ANMOL GOAL

The SANA-ANMOL program is designed to provide financial assistance to driven individuals from the Sindhi community in Sindh, with a focus on advancing their careers in allied health, vocational trades, and information technology fields. This initiative aims to enhance their marketability, opening up opportunities both locally and globally. Furthermore, the program supports entrepreneurial ventures within Sindh. Selection of eligible candidates will be based on a comprehensive review of their application, demonstrated motivation, personal initiative, financial necessity, and the potential for job placement and income generation.
